

Marguerite Stormont of Davis, Woodland, and Winters, California, born on January 23, 1919, passed away on March 26, 2009. She was a wife, a mother, and a good friend to many.

Born in Madison, Wisconsin to Thomas and Olga Butzen, she and her family moved to Davis, California in 1950, after spending almost a year in New Zealand in connection with her husband's Fulbright Scholarship. In Davis, they raised five children. She and her husband moved to Winters in 1977.

She was a great mom, a great athlete—champion archer, golfer, and bowler to list a few, a gardener, a cook, and uniquely talented in many ways.

She leaves behind her five children, Bonnie Lu Stormont of Laguna Beach, CA, Michael Clyde Stormont of Fairbanks, Alaska, Robert Thomas Stormont of Davis, CA, Charles James Stormont of Madison, CA, Janet Jean Stormont of Winters, CA., a grandson, Clyde James Stormont of Daly City, CA, and a host of friends. She will be remembered by both young and old for her many endearing qualities and will be missed by all who knew her.

In accordance with her wishes, there will be no public services.
